Socket announces new staff accountant

COLUMBIA, Mo. – Socket, a Missouri-based telephone and Internet service provider, has welcomed Jeff Smith to its accounting team.

Socket sought to hire additional accounting staff as a result of its continued expansion of local phone and Internet services.

“Smith’s experience and dedication make him a perfect match for Socket. He is a great addition to the team and we are lucky to have him on board,” said Chris Force, director of finance and accounting.

Originally from Mexico, Mo., Smith graduated from William Woods University in the spring of 2010 with bachelor’s degrees in accounting and management information systems. He will work with the accounting department to ensure quality and accuracy in billing and accounts receivable.

Founded in 1994, Socket is a Missouri-based telephone and Internet service provider. Socket is a privately held company that provides families and businesses a choice for local and long-distance phone and Internet service. For additional information, visit: <http://www.socket.net>.
